The Montpelier water delinquents are more this year than ever. All the water bills are by the city charter payable October 15 under penalty of a shut off. About 500 bills amounting to $2,000 still remain unpaid. About $6,500 has already been paid in.

A very pleasant surprise was given Miss Alta Northrop on Halloween night at her home, by about twenty of her friends. John Marshall, in behalf of the company, presented her with a very pretty gold bracelet. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and fruit were served. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Siberia.
Siberia had its name from the city Siber, the royal residence of Kutsa, a Tartar prince who established a wide dominion in the northern districts of Asia.

Forty Acres of Corn.
The farmer who puts in 40 acres of corn travels 90 miles cutting stalks, 60 miles harrowing, 60 miles each for harrow and drill, 270 miles for cultivating, 45 miles for husking, or in all 720 miles, not counting trips to and from field.

The Foggy Place.
Chautauque lake is named from an Iroquois phrase, Chaudagueh, "the foggy place."

Diamonds.
Diamonds may be black as well as white and some are blue, red, brown, yellow, green, pink and orange. But there is no violet diamond, although, in addition to amethyst, there are sapphires, rubies and garnets of that color.

Straw Hats.
Straw hats were first heard of in England in the reign of Queen Elizabeth.

An Eskimo Burial.
When an Eskimo dies his body is placed upon a frame of logs or on the top of some ridge of ground, and logs or stones are piled about it. After the burial no member of the family ever visits the grave.

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.
"A rose of roses bright, a vision of embodied light" is an Indian poet's description of Lady Curzon.

Marie Sweet of Boston, daughter of Colonel Owen Jay Sweet, U. S. A., was the first American girl to be elected for a wife by the Sultan of Sulu.

Signora Duse is reported to have declared: "If I played Camille two nights in succession, especially in the death scene, I would die. I am sure I would die, the part is so real to me."

Mrs. Gaskel sang the three Brudenishes in an opera festival recently in Munich with such effect that Prince Regent Luitpold bestowed upon her King Ludwig's Order of Art and Science.

Miss L. Bernie Gallagher, the artist and photographer in the National museum at Washington, is the only woman in that branch of the government service, and her work has been singularly successful.

Mrs. Hetty Gray has no particular religious views. She was bred a Quaker, but she goes to any kind of a church. "Indeed," she said quietly on a recent occasion, "I once held mortgages on twenty-eight different churches."

Florence Nightingale, the woman who revolutionized the sickrooms and hospitals of the civilized world, is now eighty-five years old. The $250,000 testimonial presented to her a few years ago she gave to a school for trained nurses. She has written many books on nursing.

There is a young American girl in Athens who rose to the emergency in the true national spirit. Miss Florence Stone was traveling in Europe with her mother when she heard that they had lost all their fortune. She immediately got to work, and as a professional guide is making quite a success.

TRAIN AND TRACK.
Railroads of China are financially successful, and the empire presents a wide field for railroad enterprises.

On the railways of the United Kingdom there are one locomotive and thirty-six vehicles per mile of the line.

The German department of roads and communications has ordered the attendants on sleeping cars to wear gloves while on duty.

G. E. Ford of San Francisco has invented a new traction system. The motor runs on a trackless road and propels itself by pulling itself "hand over hand," as it were, along a stationary cable. The principle is similar to that used by steamers in ascending the rapids of the Yosemite.

Straight From the Shoulder

Are the statements that we are to make in regard to Sheets and Pillow Slips, made by the Ernest Simons Manufacturing Company, Port Chester, N. Y. Ask C. F. Hovey & Co., Jordan & Marsh or any large users of Sheets and Pillow Slips. You will get the same reply—that they not only furnish the best cotton, but the best hand-torn Sheets and Slips in this country. Here is a fact that you will not quite understand. It is this; That these Sheets and Slips are sold by us at the same price of cotton by the yard (and we sell cottons as close as any concern in this state.)

PILLOW SLIPS

As soon as you see these ready-made Sheets and Slips you will have no excuse to use any others.

Twenty dozen Pillow Slips in two sizes, 42 by 36 and 45 by 36. Either size now for 10c each.

Fifteen dozen Pillow Slips, made of Samson cotton, that sell at 14c and 15c. These Slips, 42 by 36 for 14c and 45 by 36 for 15c. Same price as cotton.

Ten dozen Hemstitched Slips of good, fine cotton, made spoke stitch, 42 by 36 for 15c and 45 by 36 for 16c.

Ten dozen Hemstitched Slips of very best cotton made spoke stitch, 42 by 36 for 17c and 45 by 36 for 18c.

You only pay three cents each for the hemstitching.

PILLOW SLIPS AND SHEETS

Five dozen 42 by 38½ Pillow Slips, made of Peppercorn cotton, for 16c each.

SHEETS.

Are all hand torn, so that when laundered they always iron out square.

Unbleached Sheets, 51 by 90, at same price as cotton.

Bleached Sheets, 51 by 90, at a trifle less than same grade of cotton. Cotton costs 63c Sheets 60c.

Bleached Sheets, 51 by 90, same price as sheeting, 75c for either.

Hemstitched Sheets for only 5c each more than plain, same quality.

BLANKETS AND QUILTS

Just now we are selling a ten-quarter Blanket at 40c and an eleven-quarter one for 50c.

We have a special trade in a fine, heavy, white Blanket with blue border at $2.49.

One lot of large Marcellus Bed Quilts, a good value at $1.25, now at 98c.

One lot of double-faced Bed Comforters for $1.00 each.

One lot of extra sized Bed Comforters, the largest in the city, at $2.00 each.

One lot of fancy Bed Comforters in different designs at $2.75 and $3.00 each. They are beautiful and look almost like silk.

The above prices on Sheets and Pillow Slips are made possible only by our buying for cash and selling for cash—the only way it can be done.

The ladies of the O. E. S. will meet with Mrs. N. J. Roberts, 28 Grange street, tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock to sew for the Masonic fair.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Hanson, formerly of this city, left New York yesterday for Egypt, where they expect to make their home for a short time at least. They will first go to Assiout, about 400 miles up the Nile river. After being there several months they expect to go to Fash, which is about 200 miles up the river. At the latter place Dr. Hanson expects to have charge of the men on a large private plantation. He will also conduct a private practice and conduct clinics at a Presbyterian mission.

An Egyptian Famine.
In A. D. 42 the Nile failed to rise because of the lack of rain in the heart of Africa, the crops failed, and over 1,000,000 people perished in Egypt.

A Mexican Delicacy.
Pinole is a Mexican corn dainty. The corn is roasted, ground to a coarse meal, mixed with sugar and spices and then stirred with water. It is very nutritious and often forms the sole food of travelers on long journeys.

Margaret of Savoy, daughter of Maximilian, emperor of Germany, was governess of the Netherlands 1895-98 and retained in the possession of a very long, stiff beard.

OLIVE OIL.
Olive oil is injured by being kept in the light. When used at the table it should be put in a dark colored bottle and removed to a cool, dark place immediately after the meal is over.

An Old Saw.
"Never less alone than when alone" has been traced from one author to another, and many claims have been made to its first employment. No earlier use can be found of it, however, than by Clever.

Washington's Birthday.
Washington's birth is recorded in the family Bible as having taken place on "ye 11th day of February, 1732." This was before the adoption of the modern calendar by England, and this day was observed by Washington as his birthday until his twentieth year.
